CHAS. A. BREATH, JR. IN HEROIC PLUNGE, SWIM RESCUES MAN FROM BAY

As Auto Goes Through Bars of Bridge One Man Drowned —Bay Resident Heroically Leaps Into Waters of Bay and Saves Another

Chas. A. Breath, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Breath of Bay St. Louis, proved himself a hero in no uncertain terms last Thursday afternoon when he plunged into the waters of Bay St. Louis and rescued from drowning John Lawrence Campbell after the auto in which Campbell was riding with Grosvenor H. Monroe crashed through the open draw span on the new traffic bridge over the Bay of St. Louis, drowning Monroe.

Monroe, 54, has resided in Pass Christian three years and Campbell has been in the Pass for the past two months coming from Falls River, Mass.

The two men were on their way to Bay St. Louis from Pass Christian when the accident occurred about 6:30 Thursday afternoon. The draw span was open for several barges to go through, and it is thought that the driver became confused by the number of lights on the barges, failing to see the signals. The open car struck the wooden safety device breaking it off at the edge of the bridge and plunged into the water.

C. A. Breath, Jr., known to his friends as "Junior," who was riding in an automobile behind that of Campbell and Monroe, saw the accident and without removing his shoes or clothing jumped into the Bay, bringing to the bridge supports Campbell who was attempting to swim. Breath then made several attempts to locate the auto by diving. Campbell was carried to the Dixie Construction Company Emergency Hospital at the Bay for treatment where it was found he was badly cut about the face and chest.

Herman Finhold, special officer of Pass Christian, was called and after driving several times located the automobile. Grosvenor H. Monroe, C. A. Breath of Bay St. Louis assisted the officer.

A steel derrick on a 20-ton truck belonging to the Dixie Construction Company with crew headed by W. A. Post and T. J. Myers, truck operator and driver, was called and made an attempt to raise the car.

Finhold went down into the water and tied a cable around the wheel of the automobile, and the work of raising it was begun. When the auto toiled was almost out of the water, the cable broke and it was necessary to begin the work over again. After the first unsuccessful attempt the automobile was brought to the surface of the water about 10:30, and the body of Monroe recovered. The body was caught with a grappling hook and brought to the concrete pier at the edge of the bridge. The remains were taken in charge by the Lang Undertaking Company.

This same crew with the Dixie Construction Company which is rebuilding part of the lines and setting poles for the Mississippi Power Company, did heroic work last year in trying to resuscitate the young son of Edward Adis who was drowned off the ferry pier while fishing.

People of the entire Coast area are loud in their praise of the heroic action of Breath, Perkins and Finhold in all the fine things they did in rescue work.

About eight hundred people from Bay St. Louis and Pass Christian were in the bridge watching the car being raised, and hundreds of cars were parked on each side of the draw span. Traffic was held up until after 11 o'clock, while the draw span was open to enable the derrick to bring the car to the surface.

Monroe, who was drowned, is survived by his mother who resides in Mumbells, South Wales. He also has a brother in Chicago. He resided in Europe until he came to the United States, and is a graduate of Queens-town College, England.

The man who gave his name to hospital attendants here as John Lawrence Campbell of Falls River, Massachusetts, has been known in Pass Christian as Ned Hurley, and friends of Monroe state that he was a relative of Will Hurley, trainer for the Idle Hour Farm racing stable of Colonel E. R. Bradley.

Monroe resided at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. R. French on East Front street and was bookkeeper for the A. R. French Oyster Company.

The body of Monroe has lain in state at the Lang Undertaking Company parlors in Gulfport since his death awaiting information from his mother who lives in Wales.

SUPERVISORS HOLD MEETING

The board of supervisors held meetings Monday and Wednesday of this week during which the preparation of the discussion was taken up with the matter of where the Southern Paving Construction Company should begin work at the north end of the paving project. Last week the machinery was moved from the shore north of Bay St. Louis. The board decided Wednesday to let the original order stand and have the work begin at the Berries factory site and work northward.

Only routine matters were handled by the board at the rest of the meetings.

DELIGHTED WITH PINE HILLS CLUB

Officials of New Owners of Property Visit Coast
Are Most Enthusiastic

Captain Stephen N. Bobo, president of the Central Development Company, and Holland B. Judkins, managing director of the Bowman Management, Inc., were week-end guests at Pine Hills club which these interests have recently acquired and while here these officials expressed themselves as highly delighted with the entire property, remarking that here one had the sparkling waters of the Bay in front where all types of fishing and boating may be enjoyed, and behind the hotel there extended excellent golf links, while within the club building was found every convenience and pleasant setting, not neglecting the many other sports afforded by the property and surrounding section. Messrs. Bobo and Judkins left for New Orleans Monday en route to New York City.

James E. Barrett, arrived from New York some three days before Messrs. Bobo and Judkins, and states that he is most enthusiastic over the club and the Pine Hills property, of which he is now resident manager. He comes excellently well qualified to fill this position, having formerly been with the Hotel Manhattan and later going to the Commodore Hotel of New York, another Bowman interest.

Banquet Given

The Pine Hills club has host Saturday night to a pleasant dinner at which Messrs. Bobo and Judkins were honor guests and to which were invited members of the club and other officials including: Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr., of Bay St. Louis, Mayor J. H. Spence of Pass Christian, Sheriff J. C. Jones of Hancock county, Lieutenant-Governor Bidwell Adam of Pass Christian, E. J. Adam, Sr., president of the board of supervisors of Hancock county, H. S. Weston, president of the board of supervisors of Hancock county, and which was attended by about 150.

Sidney White, of New Orleans, president of Pine Hills club, presided as toastmaster and among those who spoke were: Captain Bobo, Mr. Judkins, James E. Barrett, Lieutenant-Governor Adam, Major Petersen, Rudolph Hecht.

Among those attending from Bay St. Louis were: Mr. and Mrs. George R. Rea, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. McDowell, J. E. Jones, daughter, Miss Alberta Jones, Miss Gladys Speer, Mr. and Mrs. H. S. Weston, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Moreau, Mrs. E. J. Leonard, Mr. and Mrs. J. U. Jorjy, Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr., Miss Margaret Green, Waldo Otis, Miss Lella M. Evans.

King's Daughters

The regular November meeting of the Bay Circle of King's Daughters and Sons will be held Monday afternoon, 3 o'clock, Hotel Weston. At this time Mrs. C. E. McDonald, president of the local circle and state vice president, will make a report on the recent state convention which she attended as member of the executive board. The full membership of the organization is asked to attend, as the meeting will be most interesting and important.

CLERK'S OFFICE COPIES TAX ROLLS AND OLD RECORDS

Assessment Rolls Are Completed—Deed Records H and J Are Being Typed

The four books of real estate rolls and two books of personal rolls for Hancock county's assessments have been copied by clerk A. G. Favre's office, the work having been completed a few days earlier than at any previous year. The rolls have been accepted. It is the custom of the clerk's office to copy six rolls each two years and the opposite year to copy two personal rolls.

An interesting piece of work is in progress at the clerk's office at the present time as the deputies are engaged in copying two old record books, namely, the H and J deed records. These books have been in use so constantly that they were falling apart even the backs having been much worn. The H deed book shows recordings from January 1879 to September 1881, and during these recordings the clerks were T. J. Murphy, H. Sanders and E. H. Hoffman. The J deed book shows recordings from November 1883 to May 1885, and during this time E. H. Hoffman was the clerk.

In recopying the deed records two handsome modern loose leaf notebooks were secured and all deeds are being typed. In order to keep the order of the records as referred to by pages on each page of the new book there must appear only what appears on each page of the old book. All of both H and J books are written in long hand and in many instances the reading takes much care to decipher. But of the new record books were supplied by the stationery and printing department of The Sea Coast Echo.

HOOPER IS ELECTED PRESIDENT

Solid South Broken As Republican Nominee Land-slides Into Office

Election day, Tuesday of this week, throughout the nation gave to Mr. Herbert Hoover, Republican nominee, an overwhelming majority of the votes polled. From the early hours of election night when the reports from all over the United States began to be broadcasted there was little doubt that Mr. Hoover had defeated the Democratic nominee, Governor Alfred Smith of New York.

A number of interesting facts developed from the election, the importance being probably that the "solid south" so long believed peculiarly owned by the Democratic party, was broken, when Florida, Virginia, North Carolina and probably Texas went Republican.

Mississippi remained Democratic with a 4-1 majority, while Coast counties gave Smith the lead, Harrison county from 21 to 30 boxes heard from giving Smith 3816, Hoover 1500. Hancock county from 12 of the 14 boxes heard from unofficially gave Smith 1205 and Hoover 298; Jackson county from 11 of the 18 boxes gave Smith 878 Hoover 368. Pearl River county total gave Hoover 963 to Smith's 891, Governor Theo. Bilbo's home county going Republican.

George county gave Hoover a slight majority. Stone county went about 2-1 in favor of Hoover. Perry and Green counties are reported as slightly in a majority for Hoover.

Hancock County's Vote

Unofficial returns from 12 of the 14 boxes in Hancock county give the following results: (The Democratic Executive Committee for the county met too late for the report to appear in this week's Echo.)

Hurley Improving.

Ed Hurley, Alias Campbell, the man who narrowly escaped drowning in the waters of the Bay of St. Louis Thursday and who was rescued by C. A. Breath, Jr., of this city, is yet at the King's Daughters Emergency Hospital where reports state he is improving, the cuts gradually healing though indications are that he will remain at the hospital several days longer.

Many Visitors at Hotel.

Many visitors were reported at the Hotel Weston for the week-end to attend the Bay of St. Stanislaus College. Almost all rooms at the hotel were occupied and the crowds in the dining room were very large.

RED CROSS ROLL CALL TO BEGIN

Mayor Issues Proclamation Naming Armistice Day As Beginning of Work

Urging all citizens to renew their allegiance to the American Red Cross Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr., of Bay St. Louis has issued a proclamation naming the period from Armistice Day, November 11, through Thanksgiving Day, November 29, as the dates for the organization's Twelfth Annual Roll Call, in which the Hancock county chapter is expected to enroll 350 members for 1929.

Calling attention to the fact that only through memberships, solicited once a year, are the many activities of the organization supported, he declared it to be "of the utmost importance that response here and throughout the nation shall be on a scale commensurate with the organization's needs." Not less than five million members are needed this year.

The Mayor's proclamation said in part: "Once a year the American Red Cross extends to us the privilege of membership in order that we may have a share in its great work. At home and abroad this organization acts for the American people, translating into countless deeds of service the humanitarian impulses of a great nation."

"When great calamities, such as the Mississippi Valley flood of last year, confront us it is the Red Cross to which we instinctively turn. Relatively few of us know that literally every day during the last year its workers ministering to the needs of sufferers from lesser disasters in this country as the result of tornadoes, fires, explosions, floods, hurricanes and other calamities.

"Disaster relief is but one of its activities and only one of many reasons why we should lend our support. In other fields, equally as important even if not so spectacular, it is waging a silent campaign to raise the health standards of the nation."

The Hancock county roll call will be conducted under the direction of Jos. O. Mauffray, chairman, Geo. R. Rea, treasurer, Mrs. Geo. R. Rea, publicity chairman, and a great number of workers who will be chosen at the special call meeting which will be held Friday afternoon of this week at 2:30 o'clock, at the Chamber of Commerce. At this time plans for raising the $350 quota assigned to the county, will be made, workers named, and supplies issued.

In discussing the Roll Call the chairman urged all public spirited and charitable inclined people of the county to answer the Roll Call and pay $1 membership fee, so that Hancock county may again this year as in the past do its part toward carrying forward the great National program of the Red Cross.

LT.-GOVERNOR A D A M ISSUES PROCLAMATION FOR ARMISTICE DAY

Asks for Two-Minute Pause
Sunday Morning, November
11, at 11 O'clock

Lieutenant-Governor Bidwell Adam, himself a veteran of the World War serving as a buck private had the fittingly peculiar honor Monday of issuing from Jackson the proclamation marking observance of Armistice Day, which in the memorable year of 1918 found him on the battlefield. During the absence of Governor Bilbo, away in Birmingham speaking in the interest of the Democratic party, the lieutenant-governor was acting in full capacity of chief executive.

The proclamation requests Mississippians to pause for two minutes Sunday morning, November 11th, at 11 o'clock and pay silent tribute to those who fell in the sacred cause of duty to country and to those who returned carrying the banner of victory.

LT.-Gov. Adam spent Tuesday at his home in Pass Christian casting his vote for the Democratic presidential nominee.

An Important Message.

J. N. Wisner, director of Public Relations, city of Bay St. Louis, has an interesting and important message on the second page of this issue of The Sea Coast Echo, vital in every aspect and significant to the individual as well as to the whole city and Bay-Wadland section.

Director Wisner has mailed out the past few weeks over ten thousand letters, in addition to national magazine publicity, and from inquiries directed over the United States come letters pouring in by hundreds from Bay-Wadland section.

P. T. A. to Meet.

The Parent-Teachers Association will meet at the Central high school Tuesday afternoon, 3-15 o'clock. A feature of the program will be the talk by Miss Clara Rogers, English teacher. A full membership attendance is urged.

FIRE DAMAGES MAIN STREET MEAT MARKET AND QUINTINI HOME

Passerby Discovers Fire and Turns in Alarm—Neighboring Buildings Threatened

Fire of undetermined origin was discovered about 5:30 o'clock, in the Main Street Market operated by Frank Quintini, and quickly the flames spread until the entire interior down stairs where the market was on fire. The living quarters of the Quintini family are upstairs over the market and here the fire found its way. A passerby discovered the fire and turned in the alarm. The local fire company did some very good work in extinguishing the flames and preventing the spread of the fire throughout the buildings which join the market with only a few feet intervening on either side. The family was away when the fire was discovered.

Water and fire damage together damaged practically all of the personal property of the family.

On either side of the burning building the occupants were rapidly packing and removing their effects to places of safety.

In order to check the flames it was necessary for the firemen to take the hose through the market to the rear of the building. Fortunately there was a fire plug just before the door of the burning building.

In a very short period of time an enormous crowd assembled at the scene, many coming from the football game which had just been completed.

It is understood that the burned building and personal property were not covered with insurance.

COMMERCE BODY HOLDS MEETING FOR JUDGE

Miss Ladner Is Appointed
Assistant Secretary—Several Matters Discussed

Several matters of general interest were transacted Tuesday night at the regular monthly meeting of the membership of the Bay Chamber of Commerce.

Miss Mathilde Ladner was appointed assistant secretary of the Chamber of Commerce. She has been in the office of the secretary, C. G. Moore, for some time and is cognate with the work of the commerce body, in fact, has been aiding Mr. Moore in much of the clerical work of the Chamber of Commerce, and her appointment is generally pleasing because of her efficiency and pleasant personality which fit her for this position.

It was voted to have the fiscal year of the Chamber of Commerce close October 31. The body decided to cancel all pledges remaining unpaid from 1928, and in future to have each pledge made signed by the person making the pledge.

In response to the invitation to the Chamber of Commerce officials to attend the luncheon meeting in Gulfport Thursday fostered by the Gulfport Chamber of Commerce at which assistant manager of the civic development department of the United States Chamber of Commerce, is the speaker, Charles G. Moreau was named a delegate to officially represent the Bay organization and Miss Ladner was named to attend. Mrs. Moreau will also attend this meeting by official appointment.

A committee including Chas. G. Moreau, L. J. Norman and Owen the city and county to solicit their aid in making the town for aeroplane route, which entails the marking of roofs of buildings to assist aeroplanes in their course of direction.

A committee including A. G. Favre and C. G. Moore was appointed to draw up a resolution petitioning the Hancock county board of supervisors to set aside a certain amount each year for four or five years to finance the county booths and displays at the Mississippi Coast Fair at Gulfport.

The matter of reducing the excursion rates on the I. & N. railroad from New Orleans to Bay St. Louis and the Coast was discussed, as was the matter of installation in the depot under construction of a display case in which Hancock county products are to be shown. Secretary Moore was appointed to take up these matters with the proper authorities.

John Osoinach was named national counselor from the Bay St. Louis Chamber of Commerce to the United States Chamber of Commerce at Washington of which the Bay organization is a member.

State Officer Visits.

Miss Minnie Watts, of Meridian, state manager of the Woodmen Circle, was a Bay St. Louis visitor Wednesday, holding an interesting meeting with the local Woodman circle. At this time a drill team was organized for the juniors with the three junior counselors, Mrs. Douglas Bourgeois and the Mesdames Alma Quintini and Lena Henry in charge. Mrs. Watts also gave a talk explaining the various forms of insurance written by the lodge. Miss Watts held a special meeting in Gulfport Thursday.

THOUSAND VISITORS AT ST STANISLAUS FOR HOME COMING DAY

Fifth Celebration Is Marked With Barbecue Dinner and Greetings of Former Students—Visitors From Many Places

One thousand persons including graduates, former students, parents and friends of St. Stanislaus College, were guests of the College at the fifth annual home coming day last Sunday, the crowd arriving by train and auto from various parts of Mississippi and Louisiana. As the morning train arrived from New Orleans about 9:30 o'clock, the college band and some 50 autos belonging to Bay St. Louis residents met the train and transported the hundreds of guests to the college grounds, while more than 100 cars were parked on the campus, giving evidence of the manner in which large numbers came to the meeting.

"This was by far the largest and most successful home coming day yet held," Brother Peter, president of St. Stanislaus, and in a large measure official host for the day, stated.

At 11 o'clock a parade of autos along the recently completed Bay-Wadland-Lakeshore highway was made, showing the visitors this improvement.

The big barbecue dinner was laid in the old gymnasium and here plates for 912 were set and these were all taken and others were added. A spirit of enjoyment prevailed the vast assemblage as the excellent meal was partaken of. The committee which had prepared the barbecue included the following: Brother Regis, Brother Cyran, Frank Quintini, Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr., Frank Mann, Frank Martin, Bill Lizana and Marial Bertin, and they are to be congratulated upon the success of the meal prepared.

The afternoon was devoted primarily to the big football game between St. Stanislaus and Spring Hill.

A great number of St. Stanislaus men who had not previously attended a home coming day were here Sunday including Louis Jacob of Class '76 and Fred Oser of class '72. The men came from as far away as Shreveport though the predominance of those present were from New Orleans, Baton Rouge and the Coast area. Greetings of former class mates, renewing of old friendships and making new ones were evidences of the spirit of deities prevailing the assemblage.

TOM MEIGHAN PICTURE IS SEASON'S HIT AND COMES TO THE A. & G.

Popular Novel Story Presented
In a Virile Romantic
Impersonation

Film fans, Thomas Meighan, after a long absence from the Bay St. Louis screen, is coming and is dated for the A. & G. Theatre Thursday of next week.

Thomas Meighan offers once again this time in "The Mating Call," one of the most entertaining pictures of the season.

Unlike his last film, "The Racket," in which he made a nation-wide hit, "The Mating Call" packs a powerful heart-punch. It has all the elements of suspense and thrills which "The Racket" carried, possessing in addition an abundance of love interest, which stamps it as another Meighan bell-ringer.

In "The Mating Call," which is based on the popular novel by Rex Beach, Meighan is presented in a virile romantic impersonation. He is supported by two leading women, Evelyn Brent and Renee Adoree.

Miss Brent is lovely as the blase and fashionable society girl. She wears a dazzling array of gowns and negligee which must delight the feminine patrons. Miss Adoree is a comely Russian immigrant girl and she gives one of the best performances in her screen experience.

There are many "big moments" in this latest Meighan production. The climatic sequence is a daring reproduction of the night-raiding activities of a band of hooded terrorists.

Family and interests are here. I have five grown sons and daughters and they are all engaged in business and professional pursuits on the Gulf Coast, my eldest son being the representative of Hancock county in the legislature.

Propriety will not permit me to indulge in fulsome reference to the services I have endeavored to render in behalf of society, church or state, as a private citizen or as a public servant. But I may be permitted to earnestly solicit every voter to make the fullest investigation into my character as a man and as a public official; and, if your examination of my life convinces you that I am worthy of your confidence and support; if you find that I possess that degree of ability and integrity which qualify me, in your judgment, to make a faithful, efficient chancellor, then I solicit your active support in the election to be called.

Faithfully yours,

Although a busy man with little or no time for himself, one of the outstanding workers in the presidential campaign ended this week from this section is Senator Carl Marshall, of Bay St. Louis and Gulfport. Unselfishly, unflinchingly and with no hope of recompense other than that of being a thorough Democrat and imbued with that sense that goes to make for the highest citizenship, Senator Marshall has delivered almost any number of addresses in the cause of Democracy and in the interest of the Democratic party. Ever true to the call, he has never been found wanting and as to the quality of his work that is best known by those who have heard him and those who know him best. Senator Marshall during the campaign ended has contributed immeasurably and in value beyond comparison.

Hancock county's showing at the Gulf Coast Fair, held in Gulfport last week, is without precedent. Community exhibits from Leetown, Flat Top, Sellers, Kiln, Logtown and other sections were not only far above the average, but visitors to the fair arrived longer and saw much at the Hancock booth. Congratulations to those who have made this possible.

BRIDGE FATALITY SHOULD PROVE LESSON.

We deplore the fatal accident which occurred on the Bay St. Louis auto bridge Thursday night of last week, so does everybody else. As regrettable as it is as inexcusable it appears. The draw span, which the car with its two companions plunged through, is located far from the other end of the bridge where the ill-fated car entered, giving ample time for notice. At a safe distance from the open span a gate carrying a row of red danger lights was in position, automatically falling as the span swings out of line.

But with all of these set precautions there are two other great menaces the Highway Department, in charge of the bridge, seemed to have overlooked. Lack of speed limit and allowing cars to park indiscriminately along the structure. The first of these two is a measure and possibly largely responsible for Thursday night's horror.

A public bridge without signs indicating speed limit is unusual, and the Bay St. Louis bridge is well the outstanding exception. This smacks of criminal negligence, to express it briefly and emphatically.

Much complaint is registered about automobiles parking on the bridge. These complaints are timely and call for remedy. The bridge is not an amusement pier. Yet many people unthinkingly park their cars while fishing nearby. There are only two driveways—the right and left. A car parked on either side causes congestion, unnecessarily impedes free passage and furnishes cause for accident.

However, to the credit of the municipality of Bay St. Louis, the Hancock county part of the bridge is properly zoned and this dangerous condition is not found on this end.

The hope is expressed there will be proper zoning as to speed and parking, thus regulating a traffic now running wild and spreading death. The careful and sane driver is safe as far as he is individually concerned, but how about the other fellow? You might be his next victim, dear reader, or, possibly, some one dear to you.

OUR NEW PRESIDENT-ELECT.

With an abiding faith in the wishes of the majority and pinning our faith to the future, we, in common with millions of other Americans bow to that will and hail the new president-elect, Herbert Hoover.

Early election returns easily indicated his election, and later returns confirmed the fact he had been chosen by the public.

Mr. Hoover should make a splendid president, he is qualified by experience, a proven executive and from his combined qualifications we can and will expect a thorough business administration.

Best wishes and congratulations to our new President-elect.

ROSEATE OUTLOOK FOR COAST SECTION.

From private letters and from other sources The Sea Coast Echo has gained such information and notes the Mississippi Gulf Coast will be the scene this winter of the largest number of winter residents and visitors to ever reach this section.

The manager of one of the larger hotels on the Coast, now in Chicago, writes to the effect that people are not going to Florida this winter; that California is too far and the Mississippi Gulf Coast is well coming into its own. He says his hotel will not be able to accommodate those who will seek quarters during the peak of the season.

Another hotel representative said Saturday night, "There is nothing left in Florida, so to speak. Nothing remains there tonight but our two big hotels." He continued: "Can you figure, can you imagine anything greater, more appealing than this Coast section? Fishing, boating, golfing, hunting, a glorious climate make a most intriguing combination."

Unless The Sea Coast Echo is not correctly informed, this is going to be a record-breaking winter on the Mississippi Gulf Coast. We expect to see this section take on a new impetus and in time we will rightfully come into our own.

A SPLENDID DEMONSTRATION.

Monday witnessed a splendid demonstration when the women of Hancock county, headed by women of Bay St. Louis held a Democratic rally to the cause of the party.

This demonstration and public speaking was held under auspices of the Hancock County Democratic Women's Organization, evolved, planned and executed by the women and how well they succeeded was best attested to by the gathering of no small proportion, men and women from all parts and recruited from the very best element. It was truly representative and it is well it was so for here were distinguished speakers who more than willingly came from distance, from their duties and freely gave of their time and talent. The size of the gathering was well in itself a welcome.

The Sea Coast Echo wishes to compliment the good women of this section. This was their first presidential campaign and how equal they were to the situation and how well they met their obligation is best proven by the success of the rally. There is a future for such women who organize, work and get results as well as to the community in which they work.

NEWS AFTER THE ELECTION.

Readers of The Echo who are wondering what the newspapers will print after the election is over and the spotlight turns from political news are not familiar with the fact that the great problem of the average editor is what not to print.

Always there is much more "news" than any newspaper can present to its readers. The business of the editor is to select and pass on it. His judgment may be wonderful, or it may be rotten. Nevertheless, what his readers see depends upon his judgment as to what to eliminate.

After the election the press will turn back to the same things that occurred before. There will be no dearth of news. There has been no scarcity of news other than election matters. Merely because of the popular interest in the recent election the majority of newspaper editors have elected to present political news to the exclusion of some other events, which, in normal times, would have received greater notice.

NEWS FROM GEORGIA.

A recent news item deserves some comment, it seems to us. Six white students in Mercer University, in Georgia, informed that a blood transfusion was necessary to save the life of a negro employee of the institution, promptly volunteered their life fluid for his benefit.

As the Chicago Herald and Examiner says: "Because the spirit of the offer is so pre-eminently the spirit of the South toward the negro today, because the South is so willing to be, as Booker Washington put it, 'one as the hand,' while remaining in another way, 'separate as the fingers,' we chronicle the incident here in the belief that it is its own editorial comment."

DR. FRANK CRANEMILK.

Milk is perhaps the most ideal food for a human being. It is our only food in infancy and a food too little used by adults. It has been called "the perfect food."

It is a food, however, that is hard to keep for it readily spoils at too great a temperature. We have preserved all kinds of foods, we have salted fish, canned vegetables and fruit, canned meats and smoked ham.

In 1851 a man went to England with a meat biscuit he had invented. On the ship on which he traveled there were cows to give fresh milk. At that time most vessels resembled floating barnyards, that is, most vessels that pretended to give human comfort. The inventor observed on his return trip home in the summer that the cows were seaisick, the milk was bad and many babies died.

Coming home he devised a process for drying milk and canning it. After much difficulty the enterprise was successful.

It got to great proportions during the Civil War, when the government bought the entire output of his factories.

Since then preserved milk has been a boon to all explorers whether in the frozen regions of the north or in the darkest Africa.

Herbert Hoover preserved the lives and health of some 1,200,000 Belgian children by condensed milk.

Our own Mr. Strauss has proved himself a public benefactor by supplying pure milk for babies. Any traveler in Europe is familiar with the dirty milk that is supplied everywhere from milkmen's cans. These have been replaced almost entirely in America by the bottle.

Still about 6,000,000 children in the United States between the ages of two and fourteen are undernourished. They are stunted for lack of proper food, usually for lack of milk. The various companies handling milk have done much good by disseminating knowledge as to the value of pure milk.

Pure milk has as much to do with preventing infant mortality as any other one thing. In China, years ago, when they had plenty of cows, they created a great civilization, now that they have cut down their forests, and eaten their cows they kill as many babies as they raise. You cannot bring up a child, with success, on tea.

Those health departments in the various cities which are insisting on pure milk and the companies which owe their success to the distribution of pure milk, deserve all encouragement. Nothing could be of more importance to the public health than the maintenance of a supply of pure milk.

Only $5,000 to the Lord.

Our Descendants.

Lincoln's Short Letter.

"Only a Cold."

BY ARTHUR BRISBANE.

(Copyright, 1927)

Mrs. E. S. Dodge died leaving one million. Nineteen thousand dollars go to friends, $5,000 to a Presbyterian church, the balance to relatives. Five thousand dollars out of $1,000,000 given to the Lord seems small. In olden days, when heaven and hell were taken more literally, it would have been thought wise to give $900,000 of the $1,000,000 to religion and make sure of salvation.

But in this agnostic day many feel that the Lord does not need money, especially as He could create any amount of it by an easy miracle, whereas relatives and educational institutions DO need money, and can't perform miracles.

That a son is born to Princess Michael Cantacuzene in Chicago means little to the average, but a great deal to a few old men of the Grand Army, who know that Princess Cantacuzene is General Grant's granddaughter.

The only immortality of which we are certain, apart from the certainty of religious faith, is the immortality of our descendants. Each may live for thousands of years in his descendants. You that read this are descended from men that were alive on earth 500,000 years ago.

What our descendants will be we cannot guess.

General Grant, before opportunity came and people wondered why he didn't keep "sober," little thought that he would be the great-grandfather of a son of a Russian Prince.

Descendants of Astors, Vanderbilts and Rockefellers will beg their bread a thousand years hence if legging still prevails.

Descendants of Jhenghis, Timur and Ittila are among Mongolian laborers now scattered through Asia.

The Triennial Protestant Episcopal Convention in Washington is urgently requested to recognize faith cures. In such cures the patient helps himself by believing that some one else will help him. Faith can do many things. A man was bound to a chair, his feet put in hot water and told that his feet would be cut by a razor.

The back of the razor was drawn across the soles of his feet. Not a drop of blood was shed, but he died. What can kill can cure.

Some doctors wisely believe that faith healing should be used to help nervous patients.

On June 12, 1848, Abraham Lincoln wrote to William H. Herndon a short letter, telling what he thought about Zachary Taylor's prospect of election.

The letter was sold yesterday for $3,000.

Lincoln, thirty-seven years old when he wrote that letter, would have been amazed had he known what would happen to it.

At the time he would have been glad to get the job in the Interior Department for which he applied unsuccessfully. Fortunately he didn't get it, for it might have taken him out of politics.

Johns Hopkins, in 125 families, rich and poor, will investigate origins, causes and frequency of colds.

What's foolishly described as "only a cold," is the most harmful of diseases, causing a loss of hundreds of millions a year in wages. And what is worse, it weakens the system, exposing it to attack from diseases that destroy life—pneumonia, diphtheria, heart diseases and a dozen others.

WAS YOUR BABY BORN IN SEPTEMBER?

If so, you should see your name in the printed lists of births below for your county.

The law requires a person who attends a birth to report the same on the official Vital Statistics blank to the local registrar within ten days. The registrar of the district in which the birth occurred is due to get the certificate.

All the local registrars in the state are required to send their birth and death certificates to the Bureau of Vital Statistics on the tenth of the month, reporting for the previous month. The birth record is of paramount importance to the family and for this reason every birth should be recorded.

Ladies and Gentlemen

I am not visionary and I have most reliable advices from the North and East that the volume of visitors on the Gulf Coast this winter will exceed the capacity of Hotels and Boarding Houses and these advices "from people who know" suggest that all private homes who are in a position to accommodate visitors register the quantity and quality of their accommodations with the Hotels of each community so they will know how to direct their overflow of visitors.

This is the Gulf Coast's golden opportunity and it will be on exhibition consequently it has been suggested to me "even by non-residents who own no property here" that everybody along the entire Coast inaugurate at once a cleaning up process as winter visitors "in good volume" will arrive much earlier than usual.

PINE HILLS ONE OF FIVE BIG HOTELS

First of Group of Five Major Projects—Sidelights of Service Corporation

Following the announcement in last week's issue of The Sea Coast Echo of the personnel of Bowman Management, Inc., of which John M. C. Bowman is president and Roland B. Judds managing director, Stephen N. Bobo, president of the Development Service Corporation, says that plans for the proper service corporation and subsidiary organizations and to be operated by Bowman Management, with the affiliated Bowman-Biltmore interests, are destined to comprise the largest hotel organization in the world, according to a local service.

Plans for the Development Service Corporation for the construction and acquisition of hotel properties, according to Capt. Bobo, extend across the entire continent. The first five hotels in this group which are now under construction will be opened early next year, and represent a capital investment of more than five million dollars. These hostleries are located within motor radius of New York City and will be the first units of the new Bowman chain to be opened.

Beginning Big Hotel Development
In addition, the acquisition, several weeks ago, of the Pine Hills Club on Bay St. Louis, a 200 room club hotel on the historic Bay of St. Louis with two golf courses, hunting, fishing and many other sports, is the beginning of a wide hotel development through the Mississippi and Gulf Coast region. This territory, in the opinion of Capt. Bobo and Mr. Bowman, offers some of the best facilities for year-round resorts in the country and already has an extensive patronage.

The Pine Hills Club is the first of hotel properties already under operation to be acquired by the Development Service Corporation, which has heretofore centered its attention in the engineering and construction fields, but plans have been made and contracts are under way for the acquisition of many other operating houses, not only through the south but through the middle west, and it is expected that an announcement to this effect will be made shortly.

Hotel Business of Gigantic Proportion
The hotel business in the past few years, with the coming of the automobile has undergone a tremendous expansion, no whaving a total capital investment of more than $12,000,000, and ranks third in national industry, being surpassed in magnitude only by agriculture and the railroads.

According to Captain Bobo, integration of the many hotel units into

by Nancy Hart

With the return of indoor life in fall comes the desire to add something new to home-furnishings. And in choosing them it is well to remember that individual pieces are always in better taste than "sets" of furniture—whether for the living room, dining room or bed room.

In some of the most charming interiors we find no attempt is made to "match" things. There is merely a sense of harmony between the pieces which, while they differ from each other in details of design and color, are in sufficient sympathy to make them live together happily.

These are the rooms that remain interesting year after year because they never bore us with too much sameness.

The Development Service Corporation specializes in the engineering, construction and equipment of modern high-class hotels in smaller cities throughout the country, and these will be operated by a special contract with Bowman Management, Inc.

Pine Hills One of Group of Big Five.
With the consummation of these plans, the Development Service Corporation, Bowman Management, and affiliated Bowman-Biltmore interests, will be the largest hotel group, in point of size and capital invested, in the world. This will extend the hotel organization throughout the country, both in construction and operation fields.

Besides the above mentioned hotels which are under construction, contracts are in the process of formation for the building of as many more hotels in the immediate vicinity of New York City, and it is expected that these negotiations will be announced before January 1st.

Officers of the Development Service Corporation are: Stephen N. Bobo, president; Russell H. Armstrong, vice-president and general manager and R. W. Wood, Jr., Treasurer.

The directors include: Robert W. Law, Jr., who is chairman of the board of Bowman Management; William H. Loucks, of the law firm of Loucks, Griffith, Cozart and Cullen; O. W. Birkhead, president of the Murray Hill Trust Company.

POLITICAL RALLY IS SUCCESS

Marshall Ballard and Judge Robert S. Hall Are Speakers at Final Meeting

Very successful and enthusiastic was the final political rally held by the Women's Democratic Club of Hancock County Monday night preceding election day when several hundred residents of the county assembled at the meeting grounds before Dad Manier's place facing the L. & N. park. Here a speaker's stand had been erected and effective patriotic decoration had been placed across the street which was closed to traffic for fully half an hour before the speaking began and where the spectators assembled.

Marshall Ballard, editor of the Item of New Orleans, a prominent Bay St. Louis resident, and Judge Robert S. Hall of Hattiesburg, congressman elect, were introduced by Mrs. E. J. Lacoste, president of the Smith for President club, who acted as master of ceremonies, introducing the speakers in pleasing manner and telling the crowd of the large attendance and interest shown, likewise mentioning the women who had worked so faithfully for the past weeks to secure voters. Seated on the platform with the speakers were Mrs. Lacoste, Robert L. Genin, vice-president and Mrs. Marshall Ballard, secretary, and Mayor Chas. Traub, Sr.

Marshall Ballard in his address stressed four leading points, first, discussing the religious question as the foundation of the present campaign, saying: "The election will decide whether or not a man may aspire to the presidential office who confesses the faith of his fathers," and stated that he believed that the outcome of the election would determine this question. Secondly, he predicted that Mississippi would go for Smith but foresaw a split in the party in the northern and central portion of the state. Thirdly, he urged the voters to be at the polls so that in case the Democratic party was unsuccessful, yet the minority would be as large as possible. Fourthly, he suggested that should the Democratic party fail of election then the voters of today would be prepared for the struggle of the next election.

Judge Hall told of his faith and trust in the Democratic party under which he had been elected to serve 12 years as judge and 9 years as district attorney and under which he was now congressman elect. He told of the fine character of Smith, the Democratic nominee, praising his rise politically. He stated that Democrats were not voting for the man so much as for the party as the "Demo-

APPEAL IS MADE TO FISHERMEN TO RID WATERS OF GARS

Louisianan Requests Echo to Aid in Creating Opinion Against Destructive Fish

An appeal to the people of Harrison and Hancock counties to get rid of gars from the waters of the rivers and bayous, is made by C. Wharton Collins of Samuel Newberger & Co., of New Orleans, who in a recent letter to the Echo quotes an editorial from "Get the Gar."

Excerpts from Mr. Collins' letter follow:
"The Louisiana Conservation Commission is endeavoring in every way to rid waters of rivers and bayous of the state of this destructive pest, and I believe through your columns, through persistent repetition of articles written on the subject that you can interest all the fishermen in Harrison and Hancock counties to the point of getting them to help in ridding Mississippi bayous and rivers of this same pest."

"I have been fishing in the waters of Harrison and Hancock counties for a number of years and have gradually seen fishing in these waters go down until at present some game fishing has been reduced almost to the vanishing point. There was a time when green trout and other game fish were plentiful in these waters, but unless something is done in the near future this sport must cease to exist."

"I believe if the Board of Supervisors or some one in authority should offer a premium to each fisherman for a gar fish of say five to ten cents a head, a step in the right direction would be taken and that sooner or later the waters could be cleared of the greater portion of these tigers and the damage they do to young fish as well as to fish eggs."

"I hope that you will meet my suggestion and utilize the editorial referred to as a basis for developing interest along the lines in Hancock and Harrison counties."

cratic party was the party for all Southerners, and that a man's religion was his personal affair and not his political stand."

Quoting Jeffersonian Democracy Judge Hall said: "The party is by the people and for the people" and urged the voters to make it what they desired. He objected to the claims of the Republican party that it brought prosperity claiming that such prosperity as prevailed was that of trusts and combines.

The speakers stand was decorated for the occasion by a committee including Mrs. E. J. Lacoste, Mrs. Marshall Ballard, Archie Surcouf, and Edward Heitzmann. Mr. Surcouf loaned his flags and bunting for the occasion.

St. Stanislaus band supplied the music for the evening, playing a number of selections as the crowd began to assemble.

Telephone service, a public trust

THE widespread ownership of the Bell Telephone System places an obligation on its management to guard the savings of its hundreds of thousands of stockholders.

Its responsibility for so large a part of the country's telephone service imposes an obligation that the service shall always be adequate, dependable and satisfactory to the user.

The only sound policy that will meet these obligations is to continue to furnish the best possible service at the lowest cost consistent with financial safety.

There is then in the Bell System no incentive to earn speculative or large profits. Earnings must be sufficient to assure the best possible service and the financial integrity of the business. Anything in excess of these requirements goes toward extending the service or keeping down the rates.

This is fundamental in the policy of the company.

The Bell System's ideal is the same as that of the public it serves—the most telephone service and the best at the least cost to the user. It accepts its responsibility for a nation-wide telephone service as a public trust.

Property Is Sold In Pass

Another large real estate deal was completed at Pass Christian last week when the Louis Christianson property on West Beach was sold to Miss Lydia D. Mattes of New Orleans the sale being made through the E. A. Lang Realty Company of Pass Christian.

The property, which is one of the show places of West Pass Christian has a frontage of 62 feet on the Beach Boulevard, and extends back one block to Second street. It was formerly owned by Mrs. E. Torpe, who sold it to the Christianson family some years ago. A number of improvements were made on the house at the time, and Miss Mattes plans other extensive improvements.

The grounds have been laid out in a formal garden, and the attractive landscaping has attracted favorable comment from numerous visitors to Pass Christian.

Miss Mattes and members of her family will become permanent residents of Pass Christian, occupying the property throughout the entire year.

The E. A. Lang Realty Company has been active lately in a number of realty transfers. One of the more recent sales being made by Mr. Lang being the former Stonewall Jackson home on West Beach, which was purchased by A. B. Freeman of New Orleans.

Many Pleased With Fair.

Many complimentary remarks have been heard this week from Hancock county residents regarding their pleasure in the Mississippi Coast Fair last week at Gulfport, and especially happy are those who attended the fair in the very fine showing made by the Hancock county community booths which were visited often by the people from west of the Bay who went over to the fair.

"FOUR SONS," FOX FILM, OFFERS LEAD ROLES TO BIG STARS

Great Human Interest Story
Coming To A. & G. Theatre Sunday and Monday

It is safe to say that there will be no adverse comment on the actions of German officer characters in Fox Films "Four Sons" when it appears on the screen of the A. & G. Theatre, Bay St. Louis, commencing next Sunday, and including Monday, and for good reason. Every man appearing in these interpretations is a former member of the German army.

Following Director John Ford's stay in Europe, during which time he spent several months in Germany, it was decided that only ex-soldiers would be considered for these highly important atmospheric bits.

Numbered among these players is His Royal Highness, Archduke Leopold of Austria, whose first screen appearance is made in the new Ford production, and Captain Carl von Haarmann, former member of the German Air Service.

In the important roles are Margaret Mann, who plays the stellar role of the grandmother of Earle Foxe, noted screen comedian, who hurls his comic mask to the winds in his characterization of Von Stomm, villain extraordinary.

Francis X. Bushman, Jr., George Meeker, Charles Morton and James Hall essay the roles of Grandmother Bernie's four sons, around whom most of the dramatic action revolves. June Collyer plays the feminine lead.

Labor Head Asks Nation's Workers to Support Red Cross

William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, in Washington, calls upon the workers of the nation to support the twelfth annual roll call of the American Red Cross, November 11-29, in the following statement:

"Through the American Red Cross we find expression for some of our noblest ideals. It is an effective instrument for magnifying many times our personal service to humanity."

"In the face of great disasters, when the injured and homeless run into the thousands, there is little we can do individually. Consolidating our strength through membership in this great organization, our opportunity for service is unlimited."

"We must not forget that every day is a day of disaster to thousands. Into homes where disaster strikes your Red Cross goes in your name to be friend and counselor to those upon whom misfortune has laid her heavy hand."

"As President of the American Federation of Labor, I hope and feel confident that the workers of the nation will respond to the Red Cross Roll Call and have a part in this organization's great work."

The Nation's "shopping center" might well be the characterization given metropolitan St. Louis. With more than 4,000 industries producing approximately $1,300,000,000 in manufactured commodities annually, and numerous distributing and jobbing houses located in the district, "Great St. Louis" is one of the foremost commercial and industrial centers in the country.

More than 218 diversified lines of products, running virtually the whole gamut of industrial productivity, are being produced in the district, which comprises generally the territory within a radius of approximately 50 miles around the City of St. Louis.

With twenty-eight railroads radiating to all sections of the country, and an exemplary package-car system, the city is "twenty-four hours from anywhere" in the country.

In a cultural way, St. Louis has made equally wide provision. BAY HIGH SCHOOL ALIVE WITH MANY DATES AND THINGS Bay Team Downs Moss Point —Girls' Team Elects Captain

Friday, November 2, the Bay High Tigers went to Moss Point to take on the Moss Point High team, one of the strongest contenders of Class B champions. The Bay High boys really played ball as everyone was wide awake throughout the entire game. The Moss Point boys fought gamely, but the Tigers were determined to win. The game was real close from beginning to end. In the first two quarters, both teams fought for a touch down, but failed to carry the pigskin over. At the end of the third quarter Capt. Taconi intercepted a pass which started the rally. Maurigi threw a long pass to Raymond which brought the ball to Moss Point's five yard line, then Maurigi circled the right end to bring the ball to the two yard line as the third quarter ended. When the fourth quarter started the Bay boys hit the line three times, but failed to make the touch down. Then a short pass followed from Maurigi to Taconi for the touchdown. A pass from Maurigi to Beeson failed for the extra point.

Ladner, the Bay High's star half back has been out for the last two games, Moss Point and Kiln, but he will be in shape for the game Thursday.

Girls' Team Elects Captain

A basketball meeting was held last week to elect a captain for the girls' basketball team. Laurin Gex was elected captain and "Piggy" King alternate captain. The Bay High girls have a great deal of material this year, although there are many new girls on the squad. A practice game will be played against Kiln High one night this week.

were greatly enjoyed by them. This was the best collection of pictures ever sent to the high school for exhibition.

Commercial Notes

The shorthand class is now taking dictation and does not seem to mind it as much as they thought they would. The typing department received a new record; the gift of Stella Gex. New tunes relieve the monotony (take the hint.)

The bookkeeping class is trying to keep up their good record. Last term there was not one failure. Has any other class come up to our standard?

Miss Mary Florida Cossar, instructor of home economics in the high school, was in Hattiesburg Monday, attending an educational meeting on Child Development and Parental Education. Miss Anna E. Richardson of the National Home Economics Association of Washington was the speaker. This was preliminary to the course on Child Feeding and care that will be given in the home economics classes.

Serious Seniors

The senior class gave a snappy program in the auditorium last week. As the seniors wanted to give an exceptionally fine program, they invited the stars of Hollywood to assist them. The impersonation that the seniors gave of the stars was so realistic that one would have believed that the senior's were Hollywood's real stars. Ruby Sacredote's red hair would have made Clara Bow actually jealous of her impersonation in "Red Hair". Lucille de Armas and Pierre Tremout were a scream when Ben Hur (Pierre) rode Mae McAvoy (Lucille) on the stage in his chariot—a wheelbarrow. Ed Whitfield appeared as Red Grange in "A Minute to Play". Lenore Dubulsson appeared as Polly Moran in "Bringing Up Father" and Anna Mae Ladner as Gloria Swanson in "Sadie Thompson". Laurin Gex and Bill Griffith gave a thrilling love (?) scene of Greta Garbo and John Gilbert in "Love". Lois de Armas impersonated Dolores del Rio in "Romano." Last but not least on the senior program was Norma Gex as "The Hunchback of Notre Dame." She looked the part and created horror in the minds of all.

The seniors received their class rings and were all pleased with them. Everyone is wearing their own ring too. Wonder how long that will last?

Jolly Juniors

The junior class assembled in the library last week and selected their class pins. Everyone seemed to be pleased with the pins and are anxiously awaiting their arrival.

This past week the juniors entertained the school with a peppy program. It pictured the juniors as they would be in 1940. There was a Herbert Hoover and Al Smith of 1940 in the form of Frank Beeson and Howard Casanova respectively. Edith Ballara chased frogs at the University of California. Stella Gex was an opera singer and how she did sing. Myrtle Baker was married and was the happy mother of a very large family. Miss Swenson was dancing in Ziegfeld Follies and our own little Dorothy Schieb was a nun.

RED CROSS NURSES AID IN HURRICANE DISASTER

In addition to their year around work in the Public Health field, the Public Health nurses of the American Red Cross have answered a number of calls to combat epidemics, and in disaster work during the year just ending; the Red Cross states.

Their greatest task was in the relief following the West Indies hurricane when 20 nurses were despatched to Florida and 22 to Porto Rico, to assume charge of the health work there. Epidemic conditions were especially grave in both places, and inoculation of several hundred thousand persons had to be arranged in order to prevent spread of contagion. Nursing the injured, the sick, aged and young and caring for the newborn were heavy tasks in both areas.

The Red Cross nurses also were called upon for work in epidemics in communities. Including the serious epidemic sore throat epidemic in New England and a typhoid epidemic in New York state.

More than 500 Red Cross Chapters throughout the nation operate nursing services which they support together or in part.

A Lower Aim

That there's plenty of room at the top is a saying we're prone to ignore. The object today, you cannot gainsay, is to get in upon the ground floor.

COMES TO PINE HILLS ON BAY ST. LOUIS TO STUDY CONDITIONS IN SOUTH

Captain Stephen N. Bobo Is Spending Two Weeks In Bay
St. Louis Territory To Study Hotel Conditions In South—Talks to Reporter of Sea Coast Echo

Following the acquisition of Pine Hills Club on Bay St. Louis, Mississippi, by the Development Service Corporation of New York, and announcement it will be operated by Bowman Management, Inc., Stephen N. Bobo, president of the Development Service, and Holland B. Juddins, managing director of Bowman Management, arrived here Friday for the purpose of inspecting the new properties and making a study of hotel conditions throughout the Mississippi and Gulf Coast territory.

The coming of Capt. Bobo and Bowman interests into the Pine Hills area is taken to indicate a wide development of the Mississippi and Gulf Coast area. In the opinion of both men, as expressed Saturday to The Sea Coast Echo, this country offers some of the best facilities for year around resorts and insures a heavy transient patronage.

The Pine Hills Club, the first unit acquired by the Development Service Corporation in the south and will be operated as a part of the national chain under management of the Bowman organization.

Development Service Corporation has five hotels under construction in the vicinity of New York City with total capital invested of more than $5,000,000, which, with the acquisition of the Pine Hills Club, at Bay St. Louis, brings the present investment to approximately $10,000,000. This with the addition of six other hostilities under negotiation, which will add another $11,000,000, brings the total in new units to be opened shortly under Development Service control to $20,000,000.

Capt. Bobo will be in the south for about two weeks, he told The Echo representative, and will make a complete survey of hotel conditions throughout the entire area with view to acquiring new properties of the construction of new hotels where needed.

According to Capt. Bobo the south is greatly in need of added first class hotel facilities due to recent heavy increase in transient business and that a hotel development will mean much in advancing southern business conditions. His organization specializes in the engineering, construction and equipment of modern first class hotels and, when completed, these are operated by the Bowman Management, Inc. of which John McE. Bowman of Bowman-Biltmore fame, is president.

BILBO SAVES HOME COUNTY FOR PARTY AND NOMINEE SMITH

Hoover's Early Lead In Pearl River County Later Turned

A telegram by the Associated Press Tuesday night says the electoral votes of Mississippi appeared to be safely in the Democratic column when returns from half of the precincts showed Smith leading by 84,000, reports from 810 of the 1590 precincts giving Smith 83,301, Hoover 19,284.

Earlier figures showed Hoover leading in one county—Pearl River—the home of Governor Bilbo, who made a bitter campaign against the Republican nominee, but later figures brought Smith back into the lead in that county.

All Democratic nominees for the national House of Representatives in Mississippi and Senator Hubert D. Stephens, Democrat, were elected today without question. The list includes two new members of congress, Robert S. Hall of Hattiesburg, who succeeded to the sixth district seat vacated by T. Webster Wilson to run for the senate, and Wall Doxey, who defeated Representative B. G. Lowrey for the nomination in the second district.

WORK AND PLAY AT S. J. A.

Dad's Day

"Dad's Day" proved as much of a "gala day" for S. J. A. as for S. S. C., since it brought to the Academy visitors galore. Every girl in the boarding school with but a few exceptions had some company or other Sunday.

Witness in my signature this the 4th day of November, 1928.

Our Holidays

School is all right, we admit it, especially when it isn't much work to be done; but oh, holidays are so welcome. All Saints' Day for instance, was a most enjoyable one. It's a grand feeling to just "hang around" and not have to worry all day about whether or not you are prepared for Latin and Math.

Then with Dad's Day to make the week-end interesting, why I guess we had enough of play to insure us against the dullness resulting from all work minus the play.

The Home

"The modern home," according to Kate, should be well furnished and electrically equipped" adds Theresa. Hazel contends that hotel life is satisfactory but Anna Mae has just lately declared that none but a New York residence will satisfy her. Edith can't see any use for "Frigidaires" plain old ice will suit her. Then Grace Lou holds that the spirit of "law" or at least "pre-law" should preside in every household while Ann believes that no home is complete without a "garden." Others prefer a home right here in Bay St. Louis the "others" being Anna Dale, Frances and Marie. But Judy says she prefers the country itself.

We Wonder

Why Anna Mae prefers blondes? Why Kate would like to refurbish the Convent? Why Dale thinks so much of the L. & N.?

Why Grace Lou's knee is out of joint? If Frances is going to let Kate "settle" a certain thing?

Why Cassidy would like to see cows being slaughtered? Why Edith is said to be "different"?

Why Dpt Hubbard got a thrill last week-end? Whom Ladner went riding with twice last week?

Why Joan prefers "Fords"?

Mirrors of Mississippi

By Edgar S. Wilson

There is no telling when the legislature will adjourn. Unless a legislative miracle is had, it will be in session for some weeks. There is no limitation on extraordinary sessions. They may hold at the will of the members except the constitution provides that if there is a deadlock on the date of adjournment, the governor may adjourn the legislature to a date not beyond the next regular session of that body.

It would be interesting to know the names and numbers of outstanding statesmen and patriots who sleep in God's acre in the different towns and cities of Mississippi. Of course a majority of governors and United States Senators are buried in Jackson, the capital of the state. There are two governors and a senator buried in Brandon—Governor Robert Lowry and Governor and Senator A. J. McLaughlin.

No member of the legislature is eligible to hold office created by it while he was a member thereof except by election of the people. Section 45 of the constitution provides that "no senator or representative, during the term for which he was elected, shall be eligible to any office of profit which shall have been created or the emoluments of which have been increased, during the time such senator or representative was in office, except to such office as may be filled by the election of the people."

Hon. Edgar M. Lane, director of the Mississippi Democratic Campaign, reports that the Democracy of Mississippi has become thoroughly aroused and will cast an unprecedented large vote for Governor Smith and Senator Robinson for president and vice-president, the Democratic nominees. Senator Pat Harrison, so-called advisor at National Democratic headquarters in New York, writing to friends in Mississippi states that he is delighted to hear of the fine work that is being done by national committeeman Stone Deavors, national committeewoman Daisy McLaughlin Stevens, state chairman Noel White, and campaign director Edgar M. Lane. "Good reports," Senator Harrison states, "are coming from all over the country and if it keeps up Democracy is going over the top."

The procrastination of a hard surfaced highway system, as is being said by press and people, is causing Mississippi untold disadvantages, not to mention the millions of dollars that will be lost to the state if such a highway program goes over until the next session of the legislature. Members of both houses seem to be practically unanimous for constructive legislation for hard surfaced roads but are disagreeing on the details.

From all parts of Mississippi the gratifying news comes that not only the farmers but men and women of all vocations are expressing great delight at the growing interest in dairying, poultry raising, the location of industrial plants of all kinds, and the determination of the people everywhere to minimize forest fires and cooperate for reforestation and conservation.

servation. Led by a devoted and patriotic press the people of Mississippi have come to appreciate the wonderful possibilities held out by the future.

When a member of the legislature says orthodoxy is my doxy and heterodoxy is your doxy, little progress can be made in the matter of constructive legislation. Of course there are now, always have been and always will be many men of many minds. In other words, in legislation as well as in business matters, concession and compromise is the essence of statesmanship.

Hon. Walker Wood, Secretary of State, who attended the State Confederate Veterans Reunion at Winona, his home town, reports a large attendance, and says that the splendid program embodied a visit to the graves of Senators George and Money at Carrollton. A parade and a dance was among the outstanding features of the entertaining program provided by the citizens of Winona. The attendance was the largest in recent years and there was no accident to mar the three day session.

Circus Preacher Visits.

Doc Waddell, nationally known circus preacher, and at present press representative of the Dodson's World Shows which are showing in Gulfport this week at the Mississippi Coast Fair, spent the week-end here as the guest of J. N. Wisner, a friend of many years standing. As "showmen" Mr. Waddell and Mr. Wisner have been associated. Mr. Waddell was on the Coast several years ago when the Wallace-Hagenback circus was here. He expressed his pleasure in being on the Coast at this particularly pleasant season.

Fine Dahlias

A row of unusually fine dahlias are noted with pleasure in the garden of Mr. and Mrs. M. T. Bangard. These plants are found by most gardeners to be difficult to cultivate on the Coast but they grow in this garden with the same success that they attain in cooler latitudes. There are a variety of colors, including bronze, golden yellow, lavender, pink, white, and the blossoms are both single and double. Several of the blossoms viewed on the plants this week are distinctive and worthy of exhibit at a flower show.

Can't Talk to Wife, Too Cross and Nervous

"Even my husband couldn't talk to me, I was so cross and nervous. Vinol has made me a different and happy woman."—Mrs. N. McCall.

Vinol is a compound of iron, phosphates, cod liver peptone, etc. The very first bottle makes you sleep better and have a BIG appetite. Nervous, easily tired people are surprised how QUICK the iron, phosphates, etc., give new life and pep. Vinol tastes delicious. L. A. De Montluzin Sons, Druggists.

PRANK—

Boys playing Hallowe'en pranks at Corinth tied one end of a resined string to a window on the Cardwell home, sawed on the other end with a violin bow. Wind whines and wailings aroused Ed Cardwell, who went to his window, pointed his shotgun down the string, pulled the trigger. From nearby bushes went up two howls. One pranker had lost an eye, another some hide, others were injured.

3000 BABIES—

Three thousand baby fish are frisking about the I. C. lake at McComb. Local fishermen are sure they are there; they put them there last week. The finned tots were shipped from Tupelo hatcheries, were mostly brim.

BOILER—

Into Askin's store at Ethel last week dropped a steam boiler. It had come over from the McDaniel planing mill, where an explosion had sent it sailing. Askin's was demolished, the post office next door damaged, five planing mill employees killed.

SCHOOLGIRLS AGAIN—

Henceforth having a hubby will keep no Moss Point girls from going to school. When the school board said not long ago that married minors would be taboo in Moss Point classrooms the young ladies felt insulted, sued, last week won their cases.

DRUNKEN FISH—

Fish in Leaf river may be cavorting on the banks, smoking cigarette, or doing the tail spin and barrel roll. Whether they are or not, they have the incentive. Officers have just poured 60 gallons of "shinney" into their drinking water.

COTTON, SERMONS—

Unbelieving thieves stole a Bassfield colored preacher's cotton crop. Not mad, but very "righteously indignant," George has prepared a series of sermons on stealing, which he will deliver between now and Christmas. He hopes for, though doesn't much expect, confessions and a return of the crop.

FINE FEATHERS—

Because he bought himself a fine array of felotches which would have shamed a peacock, H. Jurgensen, alias Bert Wilson, Laurel, aroused suspicion. Suspicion led to questions, questions led to arrest, arrest to jail. He had robbed a bakery safe.

AS USUAL—

The greatest harm negro women do is to make negro men fight over them. In Clarksdale last week came up an argument between Rodman Clark and Frank Williams. Cause: "negro" woman. Result: usual. Clark shot quickest; Williams died.

QUILT—

To the Old Ladies Home at Jackson will go from Anory on Thanksgiving a quilt containing the embroidered names of 210 Baptists who had a part in the erection of the quilt. The quilt contains 42 squares, each square five blocks, each block one name.

WOODS SHOOTING—

Four young men rode along a highway near Hazlehurst. They had a bottle, had each taken several "shots." Suddenly Gerald Wood decided to do some real shooting. A minute later one of his companions lay dying, another wounded, the third unhurt but horrified.

TRASH, $1—

J. S. Collins, truck driver, Gulfport, thought his employer did his name $2500 worth of damage when he called him "trash." To court went Collins with an account of the insult, was awarded $1 damages.

FISH STORY—

At Popp's Ferry on the Bay of Biloxi last week fishermen pulled up an automobile. They had seen scars on the railing, oil on the water, decided somebody had taken the early morning plunge. With hooks and ropes they raised the car, found no bodies aboard.

SAFEST WAY—

That he might have time to open and inspect its contents at leisure, a burglar recently carried the safe of the Tipito postoffice away in toto. Whenever and wherever he opened it he found: money order blanks, stamps, $75 in cash.

SORE Could Not Rest

Mrs. J. H. Nichols, who lives at 513 Elm Tree Lane, Lexington, Ky., says:

"Some few years ago, my health was bad. I had very severe pains in my sides. My nerves were in a terrible condition. I could not rest."

"The lower part of my body was very sore. I did not feel like eating, and did not sleep well at all at nights."

"A friend of mine recommended Cardui. I began taking it and saw quite an improvement in my condition. I kept it up until I felt strong and well."

About a year ago, Mrs. Nichols says, she found herself in a nervous, run-down condition. "I took Cardui again," she adds, "and it helped me wonderfully. It is a splendid tonic."

Cardui is a mild, medicinal tonic, made from purely vegetable ingredients.

TAKE CARDUI IN USE BY WOMEN FOR OVER 50 YEARS

ECHOES OF WEEK FROM ST. STANISLAUS COLLEGE

St. Stanislaus College entertained 1000 visitors last Sunday on the fifth annual celebration of Dad's Day and Homecoming.

The faces of many old Grads and old boys were seen on the campus on that day.

The greater part of the guests arrived on an excursion from New Orleans at 9:30 o'clock Sunday morning, and were greeted by the College band at the station.

They were taken to the College in Automobiles where everyone registered. After this came the general "mixing up" and renewing of old acquaintances.

Those of the visitors who wished were taken for a drive along the new beach boulevard as far as Clermont Harbor.

At noon nine hundred and twelve people were fed a barbecue dinner in the old gymnasium.

A big feature of the day was a game between the Rock-a-chaws and the Spring Hill Frosh of Mobile. In the repeated efforts that the Rocks made at scoring, the Hillians took the victory from them by a count of 31 to 7. But the Hillians found out one thing—that in spite of the fact that they were outweighed the Rocks, their friends and Red Shirts were game and came back repeatedly with a lot of pep and puns both on offensive and defensive plays.

In spite of the loss of the game the day was a big success, which fact was attested by many a Dad and old grad as well as other visitors, and many other such celebrations to come are looked forward to with great enthusiasm and pleasure.

Dad's Day and Homecoming was made a custom in the College five years ago. It is the day that Stanislaus sets aside each year to enable each boy's parents to become acquainted with their son's teachers and vice-versa, and to enable the parent to understand just how his boy is standing in his schooling.

The College wishes to extend its thanks to Frank Martin, Frank Quinlin, Frank Mann, Captain Charles Traub, "Babe" Ladner, Shorty Bertin, Mr. Perre, C. C. McDonald, A. G. Theatre, and to the Bay fire department for their kind services rendered on Dad's Day. They helped to make the day the great success that it was.

The graduates received their class rings and pins last Saturday afternoon, during English class. They were well satisfied with the selection.

The college band played for the Democratic rally here Monday night held in Dad Maneri's park. The senior class was also permitted to attend.

It has been rumored around that the Hancock county Game Warden accomplished a record kill of doves and squirrels during the past week. His last year's record was two doves, and we are not able to vouch for the number of squirrels. Of course we would hesitate to question the veracity of a huntsman, but we understand that some of the inhabitants of the upper regions of the county are very liberal dispensers of game this season.

We would like to give the names of all those who registered for Dad's Day and Homecoming but due to the great number that attended this event it would be almost impossible to do so here.

We Wonder—

Why Cassidy was looking for a head gear after the game Sunday. Why Chassinoff cannot have dates. Why Seafide is called "Little Jonnie."

What happened to our football hero Sunday evening?

What happened to Baglan Sunday night?

Why Whitmann quit writing to Delisle?

Why Reggie did not have his home work Saturday.

Why Joe Blaize does so well in English class.

Who Gerard was with Sunday.

Who Massingill wanted to speak to Sunday.

Who got Reggie Blaize's pin.

Why Privot felt disappointed Saturday night.

What Sam Haik is worried about.

Where is Willie Leonard's class pin.

Jokes

M. Ballard: What did you give your dog last week when he was sick? My dog has the same ailment. Lacoste: Turpentine.

M. Ballard: Thanks Bobbie. Goodbye.

(A week later) M. Ballard: Say Bobbie I gave my dog turpentine the other day and he died.

Lacoste: Mine did too. Goodbye.

New Day Scholar: What time must I get to school, Brother Robert?

Brother Robert: Any time you like as long as it is not after a quarter to eight.

Levering: I'll give you a penny for your thoughts.

Genard: Gimme.

Levering: No, I might get cheated.

Leonhard: Who were you with last night?

Teddy: I can't tell you.

Leonhard: Why?

Teddy: I couldn't see her face.

Cassidy: Say Dours, when are the rings coming?

Dours: I don't know, because mine won't stay on my finger very long when I do get it.

Joe Hughes: Why was Adam created first?

Saucier: To give him a chance to say something.

Before the largest crowd that ever witnessed a football contest at Stanislaus Stadium the Spring Hill Freshmen defeated the Stanislaus Rock-a-chaws last Sunday by a score of 31 to 7. The game featured the fifth annual Dad's Day and Homecoming at St. Stanislaus College.

In the first few minutes of play Bilges of the Hillians intercepted a pass from Toca and ran ten yards, placing the ball on Stanislaus' ten yard line. On the fourth play on a neatly executed fake buck, Bilges took the ball over for a touchdown. They failed to make the extra point. It was plainly seen that the Hillians proved too much for their lighter opponents tearing through them threw the Saints for successive losses.

Spring Hill again placed the ball on Stanislaus' ten yard line when Atkins received a long pass from Mattina. Bilges made the next touchdown when he went around end for ten yards. He also made the extra point. Spring Hill's third touchdown of the game was made when Atkins shot a long pass to Beland. Another touchdown was made when Beland caught a beautiful pass from Atkins. The try for extra point failed.

During the first half the only yardage was by passing the ball. Stanislaus came back in the second half much stronger than before. They tore through the line for short gains and completed several passes. At one time Genard plunged through the line for ten yards. The last spring ball touchdown was made when Beland snatched a pass which placed the ball on Stanislaus' five yard line after a series of short Bilges placed the ball back on the goal line for the fifth touchdown of the game. The try for the extra point failed.

With only five minutes remaining before the end of the game, the Rock-a-chaws began an aerial attack. Passes from Toca to Genard brought the ball far into hostile territory. Then a long pass from Toca to Cassidy scored the first touchdown for the Rocks. The extra point was made by a pass from Toca to R. Blaize.

Scafile, Toca and Leger did exceptionally good playing for the Rocks while Atkins, Bilges and Mattina did most of the starring for the visitors.

Thus the game ended in a score of 31-7 in favor of the Spring Hill Freshmen.

CHEVROLET

CONSTANT EXPANSION

—to serve Chevrolet owners better

SINCE January 1st more than a million new Chevrolets have been delivered to owners—making the Chevrolet Motor Company, for the second consecutive year, the world's largest builder of automobiles!

This outstanding achievement has been attained not only because of the quality and value of Chevrolet cars—but also because there has been a constant expansion of Chevrolet service facilities.

In order to bring these mammoth facilities of the Chevrolet factories to Chevrolet dealers and owners everywhere, there have been erected 26 huge parts warehouse in the principal centers of distribution. This expansion program is continually going on—for four great additional warehouses will be in operation by January first and seven more by the summer of 1929.

Into the service departments of all Chevrolet dealers, Chevrolet has brought special tools and shop equipment—designed under the supervision of Chevrolet engineers. This equipment definitely assures maximum speed and precision and the lowest possible cost in the performance of every Chevrolet service and repair operation—which are charged for on a flat rate basis.

Furthermore, all of these tremendous facilities have been made available to 15,000 authorized service stations, over 25,000 of whom have been factory trained to efficiently handle every repair operation on a Chevrolet car. In addition, there are over 4,000 other points where genuine Chevrolet parts may be obtained.

Uniformly efficient, uniformly reliable and within easy reach of everybody everywhere—this great service organization is maintaining at peak efficiency the fine performance for which Chevrolet cars have always been renowned.

We cordially invite you to come in and see how our service facilities reflect the influence of this great national service program.

Among the speakers at the women's Democratic club rally Monday night in addition to Congressman-elect Robert S. Hall and Editor Marshall Ballard, were Mrs. E. J. LaCoste and Mrs. Marshall Ballard, who, in introducing the speakers respectively took occasion to make a few remarks fitting and essential. The women are taking their places and playing an integral part in the affairs of the country. They should since they are the mothers of future generations, property owners and make the best kind of citizens.

COMMUNITY COUNCIL MEETING

Grown In Hancock County Dinner Will Be Held Hotel Weston Tuesday

The first annual meeting of the Community Organization Council of Hancock county will be held at the Hotel Weston Tuesday, November 27, as a dinner meeting, beginning at 7 o'clock. This council was organized in the spring and is composed of the officers of the three community organizations of the county, namely, Leetown, Fido, Top and Sellers. Officers of the council were elected and are P. B. Pittman, president and Mrs. Otto Rester, secretary.

This meeting at which all products served are to be grown in Hancock county, is in the nature of a check-up on the work accomplished in a general way by the three community organizations during the year and plans for the ensuing year's work will be discussed and planned at that time.

J. M. Dean, community organization expert, from A. & M. College, will be present at the meeting. An evening meeting will be held at the diner meeting to which several invited guests will be bidden. This promises to be a valuable meeting, conducive of much good to the organizations. Miss Mayme O'Donnell, county home demonstration agent, who acts as advisor to the various community organizations is in charge as general chairman of arranging the program.

Fine Chrysanthemums.

Mrs. Kate Connor of Union street has some very lovely chrysanthemums growing in the front and side yard at her home. These blossoms which are just now beginning to show their best flower will be completely open in a few days. Many complimentary remarks are heard regarding the successful growth of these popular flowers of the fall season.

Beautiful Bed.

A beautiful bed of flowers is found to the west of the Hotel Weston, where a great variety of color and kinds of chrysanthemums are found in glorious bloom at this time. To the side of this bed which is in flower are found many plants just in bud, thus assuring with the early and later varieties a continued season of beauty.

Catches Large Fish.

A 19-pound red fish was landed Monday afternoon by Charlie O'Brien as he fished from a skiff south of the traffic bridge. He was using a number 7 hook and ordinary fishing line and came pole when he landed this monster fish, thought by some to be the largest fish of its kind ever caught in the Bay of St. Louis by a line.

Fire Destroys Home.

The home of William Parker of Pass Christian was destroyed by fire of unknown origin Sunday just after noon. Mr. Parker, game warden, and his wife were both away from home when the fire started, only the two children being in the house. The fire company answered the call but were unable to check the flames which had gained too great headway.

Board In Session.

The Hancock county board of supervisors is in session this week having convened Monday, recessed all day Tuesday because of election day, and again was in session Wednesday and Thursday. Routine business largely occupied the board.

Maccabees to Give Dance.

The local order Maccabees will celebrate Thanksgiving Day, Thursday, November 29th by giving a dance that night at the Woodmen Hall, in Second street. Music will be furnished by a first class jazz band. The public is invited.

Mrs. J. J. Corrigan, of Bossier City, La., has been visiting her father, Mr. Ferdinand Ramond and family, in State street, the past few days, and mingling with friends of her former home town. Before her marriage Mrs. Corrigan was known as Miss Antoinette Ramond. Her father has been in ill health for some time and the visit was actuated by his indisposition.

Mr. and Mrs. C. L. Seavold are enjoying an unexpected and most enjoyable visit of 140 miles from their home, Mr. H. Seavold, of Wisconsin, who blew in unexpectedly from Cuba this week and will remain for an indefinite visit. The brothers had not seen each other for a period of over twenty years and the meeting was of profound impression and pleasure.

A party including Mrs. J. U. Jordy, Miss Martha Hall, Miss Clara Rogers and J. A. Brown from Bay St. Louis motored to Hammond for Halloween as guests of Mrs. H. P. Hill, Mr. Brown's relative. They went to take Miss Eloise Hill, cousin of Mr. Brown who had been here for a visit, to her home. The party reports a pleasant motor trip and a pleasant house party.

Increased patronage at the A. & G. Theatre well evidenced public approval of the enterprise of the management in installing the movietone musical effect and also an appreciation of the splendid music and excellent selections fitting to the theme and scenes of the different productions.

The progress of Bay St. Louis is rapid and every improvement records another milestone in the run from the village of yesterday to the city of tomorrow.

BLAIZE-BLAIZE.

Mr. V. D. Blaize, Jr., and Mrs. Leona Blaize, formerly the wife of G. V. Blaize, Jr., whom she recently divorced, were married Wednesday noon, October 31st. A dinner at the Hotel DeSoto followed, and they left on their honeymoon over the Southern Pacific for Los Angeles and Mexico.

They expect to return about December 15th and will be at home at 227 Cedar Blvd. Mrs. Blaize is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Gilbert, who were residents of Bay St. Louis for several years. Mrs. Blaize was very popular with the younger set and loved by all. Mr. Blaize is a very promising young man, an employee of the L. & N., where he is making great strides forward. Congratulations follow.

EXAMINATION OF SCHOOL CHILDREN COMPLETED AT BAY

Health Officer Submits Report to P. T. A. of Results of Physical Exams.

A physical examination of 301 pupils in the Bay Central High school has been completed. The following report to the Parent-Teachers Association of Bay St. Louis indicates the number of children who showed physical defects found by county health officer, Dr. C. M. Shipp:

Defective teeth 108; defective tonsils 9; defective adenoids 4; defective vision 62; underweight 75; overweight 38; intestinal parasites 6; pediculosis 3; ulcers on face, lips, feet and hands 7.

The number without defects who were given health buttons was 67. Every pupil examined was given a statement in writing whether or not a defect was found.

While most of these defects are minor in character parents are urged to have same corrected in order that the child may not be handicapped in school work.

Mrs. C. C. McDonald, president of the P. T. A. has submitted the above report for publication after its approval by the organization.

BAY CITY ROTARY IS ABREA ST

Local Luncheon Club Has Fine Meeting—J. J. Moran and Osoinach Speakers

This week's meeting Bay St. Louis Rotary Club was under auspices Boys' Work Committee, of which Louis J. Norman is chairman, and who presided during the latter part of the meeting following luncheon.

100 Per Cent Attendance

President Jos. O. Mauffray in the chair, took occasion to comment on the fact that save in one instance the club boasted of five meetings in October with a hundred percent attendance. The excellent meeting, however, was a 99 per cent one. He said that was cause for congratulation and that this record should be the rule and lead for a continued showing.

Supervisors Guests

With H. S. Weston as their host, members of the board of supervisors were guests of the club and included John Brown, Dr. J. Z. Goss, Joseph Moran and Emilio Cue of the Bay District.

Supervisor Joseph Moran was called upon by the chair to tell of his impressions of the trip he took this summer as guest and representative of Hancock county on the "Know Mississippi Better Train," and told particularly of the stop at Bismark, S. D., and commented on stop in Seattle, Wash., and Portland, Oregon, and of the fruit of good River Valley, saying fruit grown in South Mississippi in size and flavor was superior to that of the far North-west fruit belt.

Henry Osoinach Principal Speaker. Henry W. Osoinach, a number of years chairman of Boys' Work Committee, Rotary Club, Memphis, spoke of the boy as well as of the boy's father. A dad and son banquet, he said, was a telling factor in getting parent and his offspring better acquainted and helped to create a bond of companionship that only too frequently and unfortunately was missing. He called attention to the fact that Rotary club night school was not extended to the girls of the community, that there was a mistake in this somewhere and asked that the matter be referred to the executive board for adjustment. Prof. Ingram also followed with a few remarks in the interest of the school work. He said there was a general impression in some quarters the tax-payers of Bay St. Louis were burdened additionally with the overhead incurred by Rotary night classes; that such was erroneous. The cost was solely defrayed in part by the State Vocational Board and the balance from the private funds of the Rotary Club. Nothing could be more foreign to the truth than this report, he said.

Toasts President-Elect Hoover. At the outset of the luncheon meeting President Mauffray said it would not be amiss to toast our newly elected president, since he was to represent a nation by the people and for the people. Accordingly, Hon. Robt. L. Genin was called upon to toast the toast, which he did, and faceted the flag the assembly sang the "Star Spangled Banner." The incident was impressive and breathed intense patriotism.

Echoes From The Wheel. It was regretted Brother Peter, president St. Stanislaus College, was precluded by sickness from attending, and it was so expressed.

Harold Weston was detained in Tampa, Fla., on business and telegraphed he had made his attendance at that place.

"Regie" Blaize was absent and "Leo" Seal was concerned, if not apprehensive, how would the club adjourn since "Regie" constituted the committee of one on adjournment. The Bay Rotary Club flourishes like the proverbial bay tree. Nothing like it has ever been inaugurated in Bay St. Louis.

Mr. V. D. Blaize, Jr., and Mrs. Leona Blaize, formerly the wife of G. V. Blaize, Jr., whom she recently divorced, were married Wednesday noon, October 31st. A dinner at the Hotel DeSoto followed, and they left on their honeymoon over the Southern Pacific for Los Angeles and Mexico.

They expect to return about December 15th and will be at home at 227 Cedar Blvd. Mrs. Blaize is the only child of Mr. and Mrs. O. J. Gilbert, who were residents of Bay St. Louis for several years. Mrs. Blaize was very popular with the younger set and loved by all. Mr. Blaize is a very promising young man, an employee of the L. & N., where he is making great strides forward. Congratulations follow.

HOTEL MEN WILL MEET AT WESTON

Beautification of Coast Area Will Be Leading Topic of Discussion

Bay St. Louis will be host to the Mississippi Coast Hotel Men's Association Thursday night of this week, when the hotel men will convene at the Hotel Weston at a dinner meeting. Managers and officers of the various Coast hotels will be in attendance and some visitors including local city and county officials have been invited to attend the meeting.

An invitation has been extended to Gardner S. Rogers, assistant manager of the civic development department of the United States Chamber of Commerce, who will be in Gulfport Thursday as guest of the Gulfport Chamber of Commerce, to attend the meeting and address the assembly, in that beautification is a feature discussion of the program it is peculiarly fitting to ask Mr. Rogers, an expert in civic planning, to speak.

The hotel men even more than the usual residents are inclined to be interested in seeing the Coast put in the best possible condition for the greeting of Coast visitors and they propose to formulate some plan whereby many Coast agencies may be brought together in making known to the public the beautification of the Coast which nature has so richly endowed. It is most important as the winter season approaches when the tourists from all parts of the country begin to arrive to have the Coast present a "party" appearance and put on its "company" clothes, as it were.

The hotel men in the Bay and pledges its support in any publicity campaign deemed advisable and suitable to aid in further beautification, cleaning up and sanitation of the Coast.

P. T. A. TO OBSERVE "BOOK WEEK"

The Parent Teacher's Association of Central school will meet Tuesday afternoon, November 13, at 3 o'clock. The program which will be in charge of Miss Rogers, English teacher, will be in observance of Book Week. All member and visitors are cordially invited.

CARD OF THANKS.

I wish to thank the good people of Bay St. Louis and all others who might have assisted in coming to my rescue Sunday evening when my house was on fire and had a narrow escape from total loss. It was only by the quick and hard work of the people and fire department disaster was averted. I am exceedingly grateful and make this my formal acknowledgment.

Sincerely,
FRANK QUINTINI.

CHILDREN'S PARTY.

Mrs. Wm. A. Staehle was hostess at a delightful Halloween party entertaining for her children, Billie, Marie Terese and W. A. Jr., Halloween afternoon. The attractive home was rendered a veritable paradise of youthful pleasures by the numerous decorations of the season arranged by the thoughtful hostess and the many favors including whistles, horns, caps. Games of many kinds amused the children, the apple game proving highly amusing. More prizes, going in this game to "Brother" Carrere, Mitzi Smith, Bettie Roy and Folse Roy. A feature of the entertainment was the taking of movie pictures of the party and the showing of a regular movie show in the home as the late afternoon came on. When the films of the party are developed Mrs. Staehle told the children they would have another invitation and this time would see themselves in pictures. Delicious refreshments of ice cream and cookies were served.

CONGENIAL NINE.

The regular meeting of the Congenial Nine bridge club was held last week with Mrs. J. C. Buckley as hostess at her attractive Beach home, which was gay for the occasion with the seasonal yellow. A spirited game resulted in Mrs. Kenneth Peppereau winning the prize. A tempting two-course menu was served.

ENTERTAINS AT BRIDGE.

Mrs. E. J. Leonhard was the gracious hostess at an enjoyable bridge party at her lovely beach home. A thoroughly interesting game of the ever popular bridge was played resulting in high scores going to Mrs. Winfield Partridge and Leo W. Kenney and other prize winners were H. S. Renshaw, Mrs. C. G. Moreau, Mrs. George R. Rea and C. G. Moreau. A tempting party menu was served. Those honored as guests at this pleasant party were: Mr. and Mrs. Leo E. Kenney, Mr. and Mrs. Winfield Partridge, Mr. and Mrs. H. C. Glover, Dr. and Mrs. J. A. Evans, Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Moreau, Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Jordy, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest J. Bonzonier, Mrs. S. A. Powey, Mrs. F. J. Jauert, Mrs. Andrew E. Kenney, Dr. C. M. Shipp and H. S. Renshaw.

FOUR-TABLE BRIDGE.

An enjoyable four table bridge party was given Tuesday afternoon by Mrs. E. J. Leonhard at her North Front street home. The group of guests played an interesting game and scores when counted showed Miss Margaret Green winner of first prize, Miss Ethel Gex second prize, and Mrs. John Green of low score prize. The hostess served a delicious salad course with sandwiches and chocolate. Those present were: Mrs. Edwin Edwards and Mrs. Newton Hewes of Gulfport, Mrs. Murray McCarley of Handsboro, Mesdames John A. Green, Leo W. Seal, M. D. Leche, Roger Beh, C. W. Evans, F. B. Jaden, G. E. Ferchaud, Misses Emma Edwards, Margaret and Genevieve Green, Ethel Gex, Clara Kergosien and Alma Genin.

LAST OF SERIES OF SEASON PARTIES.

Mr. and Mrs. John D. Grace and daughter, Miss Virginia, were hosts Wednesday evening of last week to a series of parties given during evening hours at their hospitable home on the fashionable Waveland beach boulevard.

Return From Trip.

The party of five young ladies from the coast who left on a lengthy motor trip five weeks ago returned home Sunday night. The party included Misses Corrine Gleason, Elise Prevost, Alice Louise Nathan of Bay St. Louis and Misses Olga and Marl Dubuc of Pass Christian. They motored between 5,000 and 6,000 miles and had a most delightful and eventful trip. They went via Birmingham, Knoxville, Philadelphia and New York City. One week-end was spent at West Point. Returning home the Misses Dubuc came by train a week ahead of the motor party to Martinsville, Va., where they visited a school friend, Miss Louise Huskey. The girls had two car accidents, one in Birmingham on the northward trip and one at Roanoke en route home, in both of which the car was damaged but neither of the occupants of the car were injured. One of the girls remarked, "We liked it so well we want to go again soon."
